

Wexford County Council and Age Friendly Ireland launch of Telehealth Pilot Project Research Report

10th December 12:30 to 2:00pm

Oscar Wilde Suite, Clayton Whites Hotel, Wexford

RUNNING ORDER

- 12.30pm Arrival & Tea/Coffee
- 1.00pm Event Opening & MC
Catherine McGuigan, Chief Officer, Age Friendly Ireland
- 1.05pm Welcome Address
Cllr Barbara Anne Murphy, Cathaoirleach, Wexford County Council
- 1.10pm Role of Local Government in Coordinating Support Services for Older People
Tom Enright, Chief Executive, Wexford County Council
- 1.15pm Overview of Telehealth Pilot Project Research Report
Dr. Suzanne Denieffe, Head of School of Humanities at Waterford Institute of Technology
- 1.30pm How Telehealth can change the way healthcare is delivered
James Doyle, Managing Director, Tunstall Emergency Response Ltd.
- 1.35pm Telehealth from an Older Persons Perspective
Kevin Molloy, Chairperson, Wexford Older People's Council
- 1.40pm HSE Next Steps
Derval Howley, Head of Health & Wellbeing HSE CHO5 area
- 1.45pm Official Launch Telehealth Pilot Project Research Report
Mary Butler, TD, Minister of State, Department of Health
- 1.55pm Closing remarks
Catherine McGuigan, Chief Officer, Age Friendly Ireland
- 2.00pm Session Close