Access to emergency cash valued by 9 in 10 Irish people

Over 1 in 10 reveal bank cards lost, stolen or frozen while abroad
New research from An Post Money reveals 7 in 10 plan to travel in 2022

New research carried out by An Post Money has revealed that one in ten (12%) people in Ireland have had their bank card lost, stolen or frozen while travelling abroad; an experience 14% of men and 9% of women have encountered. More than 9 in 10 state that being able to access cash in an emergency situation while abroad is appreciated with the same number wanting to be able to access 24/7 customer support if their card is lost, stolen or frozen while abroad. A recent survey of over 1,000 Irish people by Red C Research was carried out, on behalf of An Post Money, to uncover insights into the travel plans and habits of people in Ireland in 2022.

After a long 24 months of enduring pandemic restrictions, An Post Money's research evaluates consumer sentiment as many prepare to travel abroad for the first time since before the Covid-19 pandemic began and since the cessation of travel restrictions earlier this year.

Top Destinations

- 7 in 10 are planning trips outside of Ireland
- Of those surveyed, over 1 in 4 people are planning to travel to the United Kingdom this year
- More than half of people plan to travel within Europe (54% for Continental Europe, excluding the UK) this year with 1 in 2 planning to travel outside of the Eurozone
- 1 in 6 are planning a long-haul trip to destinations including USA (8%), Canada (2%), Asia (4%), Australia and New Zealand (2%)

Financially Planning for Travel

- 1 in 2 (54%) people buy local currency ahead of a trip, with over 65's (68%) more likely than their younger counterparts to purchase local currency in advance.
- When it comes to the deciding factors on where they purchase foreign currency, 9 in 10 consider 0% commission and exchange rate important while 3 in 4 consider a convenient location to be important
- In the event of a lost or stolen bank card, more than 9 in 10 value access to emergency cash and similarly, over 9 in 10 value being able to access 24/7 customer support in this situation.

Debbie Byrne, Managing Director of An Post Retail, said: "Travel is back on the agenda in a big way for us in 2022 and with our travel money offerings, we take the stress out of foreign travel. We're delighted to have great travel solutions for our customers, with more exciting plans to be announced soon. With 5 cash currencies and 16 currencies on the An Post Money Currency Card, we are the only financial provider offering foreign currency in both cash and on a Currency Card, with 0% commission, a 24/7 helpline and emergency cash if you lose your card.

Customers have the peace of mind that they have access to a human at the end of the phone if their card is lost, stolen or damaged with 24/7 customer support. Similarly, being able to access emergency cash up to the available balance on your card is reassuring for people should something happen to their card while they're away. At An Post Money we take immense pride in providing financial services which help people to live well today and in the future".

Key product features include:

- An Post Money has your travel money sorted with cash and a handy currency card all in one place.
- 0% commission for foreign currency transactions when spending in a currency pre-loaded on to the card
- Manage your card and view spending online via the An Post Money app
- No point of sale fees when you spend abroad
- 24-hour local assistance, including emergency cash up to the available balance on your card if your card is lost/stolen

Customers can sign up for the An Post Money Currency Card at their local post office. For more information:

Poemathon with Older People 2022

This year's Poetry Ireland Poemathon with Older People is seeking submissions from older people across the island of Ireland for a collaborative poem on the climate crisis theme.

Former President of Ireland and Adjunct Professor for Climate Justice at Trinity College Dublin, Mary Robinson, has penned the opening line of the poem: "Growing up we did not know; now we need to mend."

Submissions are open until 28th March 2022.

Launch event: WHO framework for countries to achieve an integrated continuum of long-term care

Launch: WHO framework for countries to achieve an integrated continuum of long-term care

15 March 2022 (Tuesday)
13:00 – 14:00 CET
Register: bit.ly/3I2svGg

DATE: 15 March 2022

TIME: 13:00 – 14:00 CET - find my timezone

Approximately two-thirds of people who reach older age are likely to need care from others at some point in time. Access to good-quality long-term care is essential to enable older people to enjoy their basic human rights, fundamental freedoms, and human dignity.

To support countries to develop or strengthen their long-term-care systems and services, WHO has released a new Framework for countries to achieve an integrated continuum of long-term care.

WHO is hosting a webinar to launch the framework. The event will: provide an overview of the global situation of long-term care for older people; share the key objectives and messages of the framework; hear reflections on challenges and solutions from stakeholders involved in long-term care for older people from Member States, UN partners, academics, and civil society; and give an opportunity for engagement and discussion on the key issues for long-term care.
